

Notice of Privacy Practices

Note: This is an abbreviated notice of privacy practices with the NFL Player Care Foundation. A comprehensive document detailing the notice of privacy practices can be found at www.nflplayercare.com.

The NFL Player Care Foundation (the “Foundation”, “we”, “our,” or “us”) is a nonprofit corporation that is operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Foundation provides relief to the disadvantaged and distressed, with preference to former players in the NFL. The Foundation is committed to protecting your privacy and understands the importance of safeguarding your protected health information. As a best practice, we take steps to implement HIPAA-compliant controls to protect health information we create or receive in connection with our grant-making activities (“protected health information”), and are providing this Notice of Privacy Practices (this “Notice”).

Your Rights

- You can ask to see or get a copy of your health and claims records and other protected health information we have about you. However, there may be situations where we decide to deny your request for access.
- You can ask us to correct your health and claims records
- You can ask us to contact you in a specific way
- You can ask us not to use or share certain protected health information
- You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we have shared your protected health information

If you are in an emergency situation, you are not present, or you are incapacitated (for example, you are unconscious), we may use professional judgment to decide whether disclosing your protected health information to a family member or other individual involved in your care (or payment for your care) is in your best interest.
